Everybody Counts Charlotte
2018 Point-in-Time Count

#EverybodyCountsCLT

1.01 Join the 31-day Challenge to help #EverybodyCountCLT in 2018. Day 1: Watch our video!

1.02 Read about the Point-in-Time Count & how you can get involved

1.03 Sign up early to volunteer with the survey effort to ensure #EverybodyCountsCLT

1.04 Donate tents, tarps and gloves for people who are sleeping outside

1.05 Download and practice the new Point-in-Time Count App. Use set up key "DEMO"

1.06 Unsheltered homelessness has increased in Charlotte-Mecklenburg. Learn why & what you can do to help

1.07 Attend the Sheltered Count Volunteer Training from 3PM-5PM at Hal Marshall

1.08 Post a 30-second video about #whyIcount to #EverybodyCountsCLT

1.09 Attend the Sheltered Count Volunteer Training from 6:30PM-8:30PM at Hal Marshall

1.10 Our community only has 30 units of affordable/available housing per 100 households earning <30% AMI. Read why this matters

1.11 Collect and organize toiletry kits to distribute during the Point-In-Time Count

1.12 Read about the impact of local, state & federal policy decisions on housing outcomes

1.13 Use this toolkit to talk about housing and homelessness with your family, children and friends

1.14 Send a message of love and thanks to emergency shelter and transitional housing providers in our community

1.15 It's National Service Day. What're you doing for others? Find an event & serve #MLKDay

1.16 Participate in housing discussions at local public board meetings View schedule

1.17 Donate bottled water to be distributed to people who are sleeping outside

1.18 Only 28% of homeless CMS students are proficient in reading. Read why housing matters for families

1.19 Week 1 of Sheltered Count Complete. In 2017, 1,476 people were counted in shelter and transitional housing

1.20 Send a message of love and thanks to outreach and PATH workers in our community

1.21 Attend the Unsheltered Count Volunteer Training from 3PM-5PM at Hal Marshall

1.22 In FY15-16, 103 households were at risk of formal eviction each month. Read the full report here

1.23 Attend the Unsheltered Count Volunteer Training from 6:30PM-8:30PM at Hal Marshall

1.24 Attend lecture by award-winning author Kathryn Edin on the growth of extreme poverty

1.25 Come to Homeless Services Network and learn about community work to end homelessness

1.26 Week 2 of Sheltered Count Complete. In 2017, there were 1,389 shelter & transitional housing beds

1.27 Use this toolkit to talk about housing and homelessness with your colleagues, neighbors and community groups

1.28 Send a message of love and thanks to all permanent housing providers in our community

1.29 Most people who are permanently housed don't return to homelessness. Check out the data and speak up for more permanent housing

1.30 Don't forget to charge your phones before leaving to volunteer at the Unsheltered Count Survey

1.31 It's the night of the Point-In-Time Count. Thank you for joining us this month to ensure #EverybodyCountsCLT in 2018. Together, we can work to make sure everybody has a path home

Calendar design inspired by the great work of Hamilton Families

CHARLOTTE.