

Everybody Counts Charlotte

2019 Point-in-Time Count

EverybodyCountsCLT.org

#EverybodyCountsCLT

1.01 Join the 31-day Challenge to help #EverybodyCountsCLT in 2019. Day 1: Post this message on social media.

1.02 Read about the Point-in-Time Count & how you can get involved

1.03 Sign up early to volunteer with the survey effort to ensure #EverybodyCountsCLT

1.04 Donate tents, gloves and sleeping bags for people who are sleeping outside

1.05 Download and practice the Point-in-Time Count App. Use the setup key "Demo"

1.06 Join community book club and pick up free copy of The Color of Law

1.07 Learn about the impact of homelessness on youth and young adults

1.08 Post a 30-second video about #WhyICount to #EverybodyCountsCLT

1.09 Donate bottled water to be distributed to people who are sleeping outside

1.10 Our community only has X units of affordable/available housing per 100 households earning <30 AMI. Read why this matters

1.11 Collect and organize toiletry kits to distribute during the Point-In-Time Count

1.12 Read about the intersection of housing and health and why it matters

1.13 Use this toolkit to talk about housing and homelessness with your family, children and friends

1.14 Participate in housing discussions at local public meetings. Check out this list

1.15 Only 28% of homeless CMS students are proficient in reading. Read why housing matters for families.

1.16 Ask a friend to sign up to volunteer to complete surveys with the Point-in-Time Count

1.17 In 2018, there were 1,688 people experiencing homelessness. Learn more here

1.18 Want to volunteer, but not complete surveys? Learn how here

1.19 Learn about why identification is an important issue for people experiencing homelessness

1.20 The number of eviction filings is increasing in Mecklenburg County. Read more here

1.21 It's National Service Day. What're you doing for others? Find an event and serve #MLKDay

1.22 The Sheltered Count Survey begins today. Learn more about this PIT Count work.

1.23 Unpack the housing gap in Mecklenburg County by checking out this chart pg. 23

1.24 Come to Homeless Services Network and learn about community work to end homelessness. Email for info.

1.25 Almost 1 week left. Post this message on social media

1.26 Have you read Evicted by Mathew Desmond? Download this local reading guide.

1.27 Use this toolkit to talk about housing and homelessness with your colleagues, neighbors and community groups.

1.28 Hear author Richard Rothstein discuss the impact of housing policy in Charlotte community discussion

1.29 Don't forget to charge your phone before leaving to volunteer at the Unsheltered Count Survey

1.30 It's the night of the Point-in-Time Count. Volunteers begin the unsheltered count survey at 10pm.

1.31 The Point-in-Time Count Surveys finish today. Thank you for joining us this month to ensure #EverybodyCountsCLT in 2019. Together, we can work to make sure everybody has a path home.

Calendar design inspired by the great work of Hamilton Families and created by Hunter Priester.

